URGES BETTER RELATIONSHIP WITH RUSSIA

Speaker At Exchange Club Meeting Warns Against Prejudices

FRIENDSHIP NECESSARY

Frank Serri Also Sees Need For Improved All Around Understanding

Frank Serri, Brooklyn attorney, told members of the Far Rockaway Exchange Club and their guests at their annual mid-winter dinner and meeting held last Tuesday evening at Teddy's Restaurant, Central Ave., that if the United States had treated Russia differently after World War No. 1, there might have been no second conflict.

Mr. Serri, who was introduced by Claude A. Lintz, the president, expressed the belief that it would be more advisable for the United States and all of the Allied Nations to be willing to cooperate with Russia after the war, to be ready to do business with them and above all not to treat Russia as a nation to be feared or with suspicion because of any misbeliefs we may have concerning their political beliefs.

The speaker stated that it must be borne in mind that Russia is contributing a most important part to winning the war and that it will be well to work with her rather than against her.

Mr. Serri also stated that there was much to be accomplished here in the United States in the way of better feeling among all races and creeds and cited several instances where definite bitter feeling had been evidenced in communities where the people were not of the uneducated class.

"We should be cognizant of the fact that there is much to be won here at home supporting the traditions of our American ideals," said Mr. Serri.

"We must be ready to lend what ever we can to all of our fellow men and to have faith in each other. Only through the medium of this confidence can we be assured of the fulfillment of our contribution to the democratic way of life."

Steven Dalsimer, local florist contributed a rose corsage to each of the women present at the affair. George E. Pettit was chairman of the program committee for the evening.

GEIST SEES TRANSIT BILL "FOOTBALL"

Chamber Head Sees Further Delay In Action On Measure

URGES FARE RISE

Says Larger Number Of People Of City Favor Increase

The Byrne-Stephens bill, pending in the State Legislature, to create a City Transit Authority, with power to levy a self-supporting fare on the City's subway lines, is once again being made a political football, was charged by A. Joseph Geist, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the Rockaways.

Mr. Geist, in supporting legislation which would place the City's transit system on a self-paying basis, stated that the people have never complained about an increase to the five cent fare, but that the objections have always been raised by the politicians.

"Ask any subway rider whether they would be willing to pay a few cents more to get a seat, clean cars, more commodious platforms and a general improvement in conditions which would make them feel safer while riding on the City's subway system, and their answer in most cases will be in favor of a higher fare," Mr. Geist said.

Unless the City takes steps to improve its subway facilities, residential areas, depending on this form of transportation, will depreciate, because many persons will be forced to move out of residential areas where the subway is their only means of transportation. Mr.

The youth and his brother, Pfc. George Melahn, were born in St. Joseph Hospital, both attended St. Mary Star of the Sea Parochial School, Far Rockaway High School, and both entered the service on the same day. They started out to study Radar and later were assigned to the A. S. T. P. program, and when this was abandoned they were detailed to an infantry outfit and went overseas in September of last year. On Oct. 24th last, both boys joined a Paratrooper outfit and received their training in England.

In December, George was wounded in action in Belgium, and his brother, now dead, brought the "medic" to aid him. On Jan. 4th, George received the Purple Heart medal which he sent to his mother and is believed to have since returned to his outfit. Whether or not he was with his brother when he was killed in action, remains unknown at the present time.

Before entering the service, Joseph was employed at a Brooklyn ship yard.

The news of the death of the Melahn youth came as a great shock to the large host of friends which the Melahn family have in the community.

The father of the deceased served with the "Fighting 99th" in World War No. 1, was also wounded.

Twin Brother Who Recently Aided Other When Injured, Killed In Germany

Pfc. Joseph Melahn, Jr., 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Melahn of 1312 McBride Street, Far Rockaway, was killed in action in Germany on Feb. 11th, according to word received from the War Department by his parents.

Pfc. Melahn is the first twin member of the armed forces from the Rockaways or the Five Towns to be killed in action.

Police Capture Youth Who Held Up Arverne Woman With Toy Pistol

Donald Friedman, 19 year old shipping clerk who resides at 1671 Scheinberg answered the door and as she opened it, Friedman is alleged to have pointed the toy pistol at her, ordering her not to make any outcry and then told her to walk into the living room. Then, the youth is alleged to have started to bind up the woman with tape preparatory to ransacking the house.

But he failed to observe that in the kitchen all the time, was Miss Mabel Miller, employed as a maid by Mrs. Scheinberg, who, after observing what was taking place, quietly slipped out a rear door, went to the home of a neighbor and called the Rockaway Beach police station from where a call for a radio car was dispatched and picked up by Patrolmen Joseph Kane and Henry Nellen, who sped to the scene, quietly entered the premises and surprised Donald in the midst of taping up Mrs. Scheinberg. He was taken to the Rockaway Beach police station where he was booked and arraigned on Saturday in the Queens Felony Court and held for examination.

According to the police, Friedman had observed Mrs. Ida Scheinberg of 215 Beach 68th St., Arverne, waiting for a Rockaway bound train at the Pennsylvania station about a week ago. Friedman's attention was attracted to a rather large diamond ring which Mrs. Scheinberg was wearing at the time.

The youth is alleged to have followed the woman home, and then decided to return last Friday morning to rob her. So armed with a plastic toy pistol, Friedman came to Arverne under the guise of delivering a package. Mrs.

Memory Of Miss Szold Honored

Far Rockaway Chapter Pays Its Respects To Life Of Founder At Cedarhurst Center Meeting

The memory of the late Miss Henrietta Szold, founder of Hadassah, who died recently in Palestine at the age of 81, was honored at the regular monthly meeting of the Far Rockaway Chapter of Hadassah held Tuesday at the United Community Center, Cedarhurst.

Mrs. Joshua Epstein, President of the chapter, spoke on the life of Miss Szold and told of her remarkable achievements. Miss Szold, who was born in Baltimore, was the daughter of a Hungarian rabbi who emigrated to America. Her father imbued her with the principles of Judaism and after a brilliant scholastic career and several years of teaching, Miss Szold devoted many years to the revival and promulgation of Jewish culture in America through lectures and writings. Miss Szold was one of the first to reconcile Americanism with Zionism. She became a Zionist as the result of her experience in conducting an Americanization school for Russian immigrants. After a visit to Palestine in 1909 she organized the Hadassah organization in 1912 in New York City. Some of the members of this original group are now members of the local chapter.

Mr. Geist, in supporting legislation which would place the City's transit system on a self-paying basis, stated that the people have never complained about an increase to the five cent fare, but that the objections have always been raised by the politicians.

"Ask any subway rider whether they would be willing to pay a few cents more to get a seat, clean cars, more commodious platforms and a general improvement in conditions which would make them feel safer while riding on the City's subway system, and their answer in most cases will be in favor of a higher fare," Mr. Geist said.

Unless the City takes steps to improve its subway facilities, residential areas, depending on this form of transportation, will depreciate, because many persons will be forced to move out of residential areas where the subway is their only means of transportation. Mr.

Geist stated that no business enterprise, whether it be City or private, could continue to permit its facilities to remain static and not improve them from time to time. Not only is the City's subway system in need of modernization, but it is also in need of expansion if outlying areas within the City are to be developed.

An expansion of the City's transit system to various areas of the Bronx, Brooklyn and Queens, will prove a profitable investment to the City of New York, Mr. Geist pointed out, as such expansions would lead to new developments and increase valuations.

"We are taking out of our tax money funds this year, over $400,000 in order to pay the deficit of the subways," Mr. Geist said. "This amount will be increased to $50,000,000 within the next few years. When the 8,000 men in service, who were formerly employed in the maintenance and operation of our transit system, return and are placed back on the payroll, the deficit will be greater. Imagine what that amount of money could accomplish in the hands of men like Park Commissioner Robert Moses, Comptroller Joseph D. McDonald, Borough President James A. Burke of Queens, and other efficient officials.

WOMEN'S CLUB HOLDS QUIZ PROGRAM

Mrs. Franklin Saunderson Wins Annual Event Held At St. John's Parish House

Mrs. Franklin Saunderson of Cedarhurst won the first prize at the annual quiz contest sponsored by Time magazine and conducted by the Far Rockaway Women's Club, Tuesday afternoon at the regular monthly meeting of the unit held in the parish house of St. John's Church, Far Rockaway. Other winners in the contest, which was under the direction of Mrs. Vincent Zavatt, program chairman, were Mrs. R. N. Curtis, second place, and Mrs. M. A. Fitzpatrick, third place.

Speakers at the meeting included Dean Alfange, candidate for governor of the State of New York, who ran against Governor Thomas E. Dewey on the American Labor Party ticket; Louis Walter, candidate for Congress; Harry Ehrlich, secretary of the Queens County committee, and George Martin, chairman of the administrative committee.

All the speakers expressed the belief that many persons, especially the young people, who are members of the Democratic or Republican parties, are looking for a political organization where liberal ideas may be carried out in the American government. These men said they expect a great drift from the major parties into the American Labor party in post-war years.

It was announced that a convention of the clubs will be held in Jamaica on February 27th, while a local meeting will take place sometime in March in the form of a forum.

The Far Rockaway club expects to be active all year.

MANY ATTEND FUNERAL OF J. H. FERRIL

Rockaway Assemblyman Died After Brief Illness At Home Last Friday

RESIDED HERE 60 YEARS

Was Active In Many Groups; Legislature Adjourns Out Of Respect For Him

Members of the State Legislature as well as other office holders of all parties, civic and business leaders from every section of the City attended the funeral of Assemblyman John H. Ferril of 46 Beach 142nd Street, Neponsit, which was held from his home this Tuesday morning.

Following the removal of the ban on pleasure driving last year, a marked increase in traffic was noted on both the Marine and Cross Bay Parkway Bridges. It was reported recently by George E. Sparro, General Manager of the Triborough Bridge Authority, in a statement to the public. In the report, Mr. Sparro revealed that 1,501,581 more automobiles passed over the two Rockaway toll bridges last year as compared with 1943.

In 1944, 2,180,578 automobiles passed over the Cross Bay Parkway Bridge as compared with 1,376,951 in 1943, or an increase of 803,627.

There was an increase of 607,954 automobiles passing over Marine Parkway last year as compared to the previous year.

The figures for 1944 compare favorably with those of 1942 when there was a total of 4,304,733 automobiles paying tolls over the two Rockaway bridges. Of this number 2,241,871 automobiles passed over the Cross Bay Parkway Bridge and 2,062,362 automobiles passed over the Marine Parkway Bridge.

While the 1944 figures are the lowest with the exception of 1943 when there was a ban on pleasure driving, officials anticipate that in 1945 traffic over the two local bridges will in all probability either keep within the figures of last year or increase slightly.

The heaviest traffic on both the Marine and Cross Bay Parkway Bridges occurs during the months of June, July and August, which is the height of the summer season. For this three month period 1,475,536 automobiles paid tolls on the Marine Parkway Bridge as compared with 642,589 in 1943 and 957,284 in 1942. On the Cross Bay Parkway Bridge 1,164,174 tolls were collected for the three month period as compared with 593,055 in 1943 and 1,066,893 in 1942.

The Marine Parkway Bridge was opened as a toll bridge on July 1, 1937. For the next one-and-a-half year period ending on December 31, 1938, it collected 2,884,774 tolls.

NEW CURFEW LAW IN EFFECT

The new curfew order of James F. Byrnes, director of War Mobilization, compelling all places of amusement to close at midnight, went into effect on Monday evening and from now until the order is rescinded, bars and grills, taverns, bowling alleys, theatres and all other amusement places must be closed down promptly at midnight.

The purpose of the order is to conserve fuel. Police will cooperate in enforcement of the new Federal law which has been the subject of considerable speculation and discussion in New York City because of the large number of amusement places within the area.

Honor Memory Of Sgt. Andrew Loewi

Former Woodmere Academy
Man Is Remembered By Students At Assembly

Last Monday, in the John H. Hale Memorial Hall of Woodmere Academy, an assembly was held in honor of Sgt. Andrew Loewi, who was killed in action on Christmas Day, 1944. Sgt. Loewi is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Loewi of 399 Park Ave., New York City. He was graduated from Woodmere Academy, class of 1932, and had his schooling at the academy. While at school he participated in all varsity sports and was very active in group and extra curricular activities.

Ralph Humphries, teacher at the academy, conducted the assembly. He was coach of Junior football at the time Andrew was a Freshman, and pointed out that even then he was a "go-getter" and an inspiration to all his associates. Andrew was old for the paratroopers but even so volunteered to be in the middle of action. He was wounded in the pelvis bone on Dec. 25. His parachute landed on the top of a tree. He had to cut himself free and drop to the ground which happened to be 60 feet away.

His wife was notified by one of his buddies that Andrew had saved his life before they were rescued by the French. His pain was so intense that he was going to commit suicide but was saved by Andy's jokes and good humor. After ten days the Americans took them to a hospital in England. Andy again maneuvered to go into action and was killed somewhere in Belgium.

TO HOLD MEETING
Ladies Society of Far Rockaway Beach Hospital will hold a regular meeting at Exempt Firemen's Hall, Beach 86th Street this evening at which time final plans will be completed for the Social evening to be held Wednesday, February 28th at St. Camillus Church, Beach 101st Street.

"Most folks now waiting for one of me
Must wait for switchboards too, you see"

Most families on the waiting lists of the New York Telephone Company are waiting—not just for telephone instruments—but for switchboard and other central office equipment by which new telephones can be connected with those already in service.

It's the central office—with its switchboard and other complex mechanisms to ring your telephone bell, sound the "busy signal," bring in a special operator when help is needed, etc.—that is the heart of telephone service.

Even if today we had a new telephone instrument for every one of the 225,000 families on our waiting lists, we could install service for only about one-third of them.

The others live in localities where additional central office equipment is needed before we can connect new telephones.

NEW YORK TELEPHONE COMPANY

Thus you see the problem of extending home telephone service to new subscribers is mainly one of new switchboards and other central office equipment rather than just new telephone instruments.

And even when volume production of this equipment for civilian use is resumed, it will take time to manufacture it—and still more time to fit it into existing central offices.

But we promise you that when the "go ahead" signal is finally given, no time will be lost in catching up with orders, which will be filled in their proper turn. And we and the rest of the Bell System plan to invest many millions of dollars to the end that post-war telephone service will be still more efficient—and available to more families—than ever before.

HEARING HELD ON RACEWAY APPLICATION

State Body Postpones Action Pending Further Study Of New Site

A hearing was held on Tuesday by the New York State Harness Racing Commission on an application for a certificate of incorporation filed by Andrew Weston, Woodmere contractor and prominent in civic affairs in the Five Towns area, for the Cedar Point Trotting Association, which proposes to operate a light harness track at Valley Stream after the war, if the proper authorization is granted. The hearing was held in the Hotel Pennsylvania in Manhattan.

The new site was selected by Mr. Weston several weeks ago after he withdrew his application for the establishment of the track on the site of the former Cedar Point Golf Club at Woodmere. Previously Mr. Weston had also an application, made to the Village Board of Cedarhurst, for the leasing of the Cedarhurst Stadium at Cedarhurst Park, following opposition expressed against the leasing of the stadium for that purpose. Some objections to the former Cedar Point Golf Club site also prompted Mr. Weston to abandon plans for the use of that site for the light harness track. The Nassau Herald announced withdrawal of both applications by the Union Orthodox Jewish Congregation of America at the Henry Hudson Hotel on Tuesday. Following the luncheon a delightful entertainment was given.

THE 1945 RED CROSS WAR FUND

Starting this Thursday and continuing throughout the next month, the annual 1945 Red Cross War Fund Drive will be in progress.

It hardly seems necessary to tell why one should donate to the Red Cross, considering the extensive publicity which has been given to the wonderful work of this great organization.

But there are some people who may need a reminder of the service which the Red Cross is performing day in and day out in every part of the world, the great solace and comfort which this work has brought to the parents of the members of the armed forces who have been wounded or taken prisoners.

To relate in detail all of the service rendered by the Red Cross would take many columns of space but we believe that most people are sufficiently aware of at least part of its contribution to humanity, both at home and abroad to donate most liberally to this annual Red Cross drive.

JOHN H. FERRIL

The death of Assemblyman John H. Ferril marks the passing of a man who has contributed generously, not alone to the progress of the Rockaways but the entire Borough of Queens.

For more than 60 years Mr. Ferril had been a resident of the Peninsula, during which time he took a most active part in the civic and business affairs of the community and it was his privilege to have witnessed the change in times and customs, and the development of the community from a small ocean front summering place to one of the leading resorts on the east coast.

Mr. Ferril had the courage of his convictions and during the period that he served as the representative of the Fifth Assembly District, (now known as the Twelfth) in Albany, he both introduced legislation and voted on measures in complete accordance with the dictates of conscience.

Those of us who were personally acquainted with Mr. Ferril knew him to be a friendly man, never too busy to meet those who sought his aid and whose interest was deeply centered upon the Rockaways and its future possibilities.

It was not so long ago that Mr. Ferril was one of the leaders in the campaign to permit the home owners of Broad Channel to purchase from the City, the property on which their dwellings are located. This notable movement he saw brought to a successful realization.

He also fought for better schools, highways and extension of rapid transit to the Rockaways. Indeed, his entire career was concerned with his fellow men and how he might best serve them.

Thus in his passing, the Rockaways have indeed lost a loyal friend and community worker.

With plans well under way for the opening of the 1945 Red Cross War Fund Drive, there is every hope, as expressed by Mrs. Edwin A. Lieb, Far Rockaway Auxiliary War Fund Chairman that the assigned quota for the local area will be successfully met.

As explained by Mrs. Lieb, Rockaway residents have always responded generously and loyally to the many Red Cross War Fund campaigns and there is every reason to feel confident that when the 1945 campaign is formally launched on March 1st, the local auxiliary will receive the same enthusiastic support as in the previous years.

The statement announcing the sum of $1,300,000 as the quota for Queens issued at the first organization meeting of Central Queens Chapter War Fund Drive, held Wednesday, February 21st at the Boulevard Tavern, Elmhurst, signifies that every possible measure of support must come from a large staff of volunteer workers who are to be ready to bring the vital message of Red Cross to every home as well as every person in the Rockaway area.

How smart have you been for the past 3 years?

THINK, for a minute, about what's happened to most of us at home in the last three years.

Chances are, you've had all the work you could handle at higher wages than ever before.

In spite of higher taxes and somewhat higher prices, you've netted more hard cash than ever before.

You've made more money—you've had less time to spend it—and, for a couple of years now, there's been less and less stuff to spend it on.

On top of that, you've had thrust at you at every turn the finest chance this world has ever seen to save and invest that money.

You've been asked to invest in War Bonds which, when held to maturity, pay you back $4 for every $3 you put in. Through the Payroll Plan, it's been made easy for you to buy those Bonds automatically—to save bigger amounts with greater regularity than most of us were ever able to save before.

In the last three years, in short...

You've had the chance of a lifetime to accumulate money! Money for your old age—money for emergencies—money to set you up in business—money that can help make this a healthy, prosperous country for your boy when he comes home from war!

Did you grab the chance? Have you been backing this war to the limit with your dollars—have you been buying all the War Bonds you could and hanging onto them like grim death?

If you have—fine.

If you haven't—well, it's not too late to start right now. But you ought to get in and pitch doubly hard, to make up for lost time—and money!

IN THE MAILBAG

Editor, Rockaway Journal, Far Rockaway, N. Y.

'I received a letter in Saturday's mail from a former patient at St. Joseph's, which is very interesting and contains a $15.00 donation.

"As I felt it carried, indirectly, a message to our community, I am asking you to kindly publish it in your next issue of the Journal."

"Thanking you for all past courtesies, I beg to remain,

Very truly yours,

Sister M. Bertrand.

The letter follows:

"January 15, 1945.

Dear friends,

"Fellows don't mind going to the hospitals, especially if it means leaving the front line areas for a while. They sure do treat you right there. But the fly in the ointment is getting back to your own outfit. This means going to a replacement centre where conditions are rough. Generally you live in stoveless tents with too few blankets and a mile long chow line. Kitchen patrol and other unpleasantnesses befall you. When you finally get back, you resolve not to get sick again. They give you a double-traveled cure."

"At your hospital I had a good time and Easter Sunday ice cream hit the spot. I am glad we had many holidays, as we got special chow on such occasions. Our community (Far Rockaway) is fortunate in having such a good hospital as yours and it should be supported in time of health — so when needed, it will always be available.

Your friend,

Abe Greenfield."

Ozone Park, Woodhaven and other south Queens communities, took a most active part in civic affairs here in the Rockaways.

He was elected to the Assembly in 1938 and reelected again in 1940, 1942 and last election. His district is now known as the 12th A. D.

Mr. Ferril has taken a most active part in movements designed to aid the residents of the Rockaways. Among these has been the Channel to buy their own property instead of renting it from the City; and another has been to generally develop the Islands in Jamaica

Bay for recreation purposes as projected by Park Commissioner Robert Moses. He also was keenly interested in numerous other projects designed to help not alone the Rockaways but all of the area which he represented.

Mr. Ferril was active in many organizations. He was a vice president of the Rockaway Civic Club at Rockaway Park, chairman of the Legislative Committee and a member of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce of the Rockaways; treasurer of the Exempt Firemen's Association of the Fifth Ward, a member of the Neponsit Property Owners Association, the Long Island Real Estate Board, the Democratic Club of the Rockaways and a number of other groups.

Mr. Ferril is survived by his wife Anna, a son Lt. John J. Ferril, an attorney, now on duty with the Army in the South Pacific; a daughter Mrs. Crawford Hawkins of Brooklyn, whose husband is a former Assemblyman; two sisters, Mrs. William H. Reynolds, whose husband is a vice president of the Bank of Manhattan Company; Miss Jessie Ferril, superintendent of the Hammel Branch of the Far Rockaway Post Office; and a brother, James, of Gibson.

Last Sunday afternoon, all but two of the entire Queens delegation of the State Legislature paid their respects to Mr. Ferril at his home. Those who were there included State Senators Frederick Hammer, Seymour Halpern, John Downey, and William Conrad and Assemblymen Samuel Rabin, Alex Del Giorne, George Archenal, Frederick Preller and Thomas Fitzpatrick; also William Great Jr. counsel to the Ives Legislative Committee; Special Attorney General Corning G. McKenna, who is also Republican leader of the Rockaways; Assemblyman Irwin Steinberg, Minority leader of the Assembly; Dwyer Schegrew, assistant counsel to the Ives Committee and others.

The State Legislature was adjourned on Monday night out of respect to Mr. Ferril and will not convene again until this Wednesday.

Following the requiem mass which was offered at St. Francis de Sales R. C. Church at Belle Harbor, the burial took place at St. Raymond's Cemetery in the Bronx.

Mrs. William S. Brower, chairman of the day, reported that the square dance held on February 12, proved profitable, and that another dance will be given in the parish house on April 13. Mrs. Brower read many cards and letters from her son, Staff Sergeant William S. Brower, Jr., who is a German prisoner.

Mrs. Saunderson acted as secretary in place of Mrs. Harley Bacon, whose mother, Mrs. Arthur Rode of Cedarhurst, died Tuesday morning.

Following the meeting tea was poured by Mrs. John Crawford and Mrs. Harry Voehl.

welfare at heart, can justify a five cent fare when the City is losing at least two cents on each ride.

Some sense must be put into the operation of our transit system. The City had no hesitancy in increasing the water rates when it was found that water was being supplied at a loss. Certainly there cannot be any comparison between the need of water and the need of transit.

If it were sensible and sound to place our water rates on a paying basis, it certainly would be just as sensible and sound to place our transit rides on a paying basis."

The City officials, Mr. Geist stated, would find the greater majority of the residents of the City in favor of increasing the fare. The only ones opposed to such a proposal are the politicians who believe they are creating votes for themselves by insisting upon a fare which is costing the property owners a considerable amount of money each year. Mr. Geist advised politicians to stop playing politics with the question of the proper management and development of the City's transit system.

Ask General Eisenhower
what your RED CROSS is doing for our Fighting Men

GENERAL "IKE" knows—better than anybody else—how life-saving Red Cross Blood Plasma!

He knows how a young soldier worries when there's no news from loved ones—or bad news—and how his spirits rise when a special Red Cross Home Service message says everything is O.K. at home.

And this is what General "Ike" says about the Red Cross:

"We simply couldn't get along without it. I consider the Red Cross an auxiliary of my army. They are doing a perfectly magnificent job in every way."

ASK G.I. JOE
Listen to this boy's letter to his dad:

"Pop, whenever the Red Cross comes to you for money, give what you can spare, and then borrow more, as they are wonderful to us."

ASK YOURSELF
Ask yourself: "Have I done as much as I can for my Red Cross—which is at my boy's side—ready to aid, comfort and cheer him?"

You can't do too much to help the devoted workers in this great Army of Mercy—who risk their lives over and over again to bring our millions of G.I. Joes the proof that they are not forgotten by their home folks.

The Red Cross is doing your job—doing for your boy what you can't do. But you can help by giving more to the Red Cross now. Its job is stupendous—and it's growing bigger. Give as much more as you can—today!
